COTTAGE NEWS REPORT - THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1992

BRAXTON COTTAGE - Braxton Cottage was invaded by the State Police Wednesday night. They came swiftly in the night, and when the dust settled, a citizen was missing. Harry tried to defend the citizen with karate chops, but the clubs to his head took its toll.

John Manchin, III, has left Boys' State for a cruise to the Bahamas. Also, Tommy "Gun" Summers has lost his teddy bear. There will be a reward for its return.

Braxton County chalked up another loss today. Details at 11:00.

Harry Crow, Counselor at Braxton Cottage, reports all is well, except for one J.J. Rose who has been arrested for two counts of harrasment toward the afore mentioned acting senior counselor, Harry Crow. J.J. was found guilty in Magistrate Court, but before he was sentenced, he skipped out.

The Braxton Bounty Hunter's Club is sponsoring a trip to track down J.J. For more information, see any Braxton County resident or Harry Crow.
