FORMAL REVIEW 1994

The Annual Formal Review was observed on Thursday afternoon, June 9, 1994, at 2:30 P.M. Each cottage passed in review for many distinguished guests. Among those present for the formal review were Barbara Harmon-Schamberger, Secretary of Education and the Arts, and the Boys' State Governor, Ronnie Wells.

Others observing the Formal Review were all elected State officials for Mountaineer Boys' State, including the Supreme Court Justices, Speaker of the House, President of the Senate, and the Superintendent of Schools.

There were several dignitaries from various areas of the state representing the American Legion and their support for this program. Those in attendance from American Legion Posts were Arthur Miller, First District Commander; Dale Hoover, 10th District Commander (Post 41); Wayne Legg, Dept. Vice Commander (Post 139); and Dale Lutman, Incoming 10th District Commander (Post 60). Last, but not least, Bill Johnson, Department Adjutant of the American Legion Department of West Virginia. Bill Johnson has been with us for the week. We appreciate your concern, care and dedication to this program for boys all over the State of West Virginia.

GILMER COTTAGE NEWS

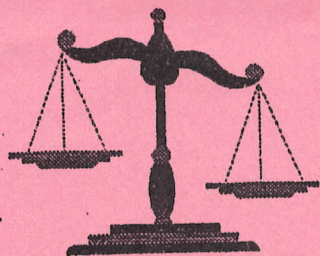

Once again, Gilmer has defeated an opponent. As before, the opponent, Marion, was well-prepared for the tough competition. During the first game of a series of three, Gilmer handed Marion a crushing defeat of 15-1. Marion returned the favor in the second game. Gilmer returned in the final game, delaying the winning point until Marion had scored their eighth point. The results: game 1:15-1, Gilmer; game 2:15-5, Marion; game 3:15-8, Gilmer. Since all players were such great competitors to go undefeated this week, they all deserve their name listed: Steve Ashby, Jacob Barkley, Ben Conner, David Briscoe, Steve Boggs, James Carr, Mike Dickens, Ryan Fischer, Jon Hardman, Ray Johnson, Justin Lilly, Skeeter Orsendorf, Steve "Hardcore" Ross, and Josh Toothman.

COURT TRIAL RESULTS

On Wednesday, Civil Court Trials were held in Randolph, Upshur, Marion, Gilmer, Monongalia, and Braxton Counties. Criminal trials were held in Monroe, Lewis, Calhoun, Panhandle, Kanawha, Webster, and Barbour Counties. Once again the trials were judged by members of the Harrison County Bar Association. The results are as follows:

BARBOUR	100.0
CALHOUN	100.0
GILMER	99.0
KANAWHA	99.0
LEWIS	99.0
MARION	100.0
MONONGALIA	100.0
MONROE	99.0
PANHANDLE	100.0
RANDOLPH	99.0
UPSHUR	98.5
WEBSTER	100.0

All of the judges stated that they were impressed with the exceptional quality of the trials this year. Several of the judges remarked that all of the years they have been judging the trials, these presented this year were among the best. Congratulations to all of the participants for a job well done.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I BELIEVE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AS A GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE; WHOSE JUST POWERS ARE DERIVED FROM THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERNMENT; A DEMOCRACY IN A REPUBLIC; A SOVEREIGN NATION OF MANY SOVEREIGN STATES; A PERFECT UNION; ONE AND INSEPARABLE; ESTABLISHED UPON THESE PRINCIPLES OF FREEDOM, EQUALITY, JUSTICE AND HUMANITY FOR WHICH AMERICAN PATRIOTS SACRIFICED THEIR LIVES AND FORTUNES.

I THEREFORE BELIEVE IT IS MY DUTY TO MY COUNTRY TO LOVE IT, TO SUPPORT ITS CONSTITUTION, TO OBEY ITS LAWS, TO RESPECT ITS FLAG, AND TO DEFEND IT AGAINST ALL ENEMIES.

GILMER COTTAGE NEWS

Gilmer succeeded once again on the basketball court, though this time, the competition was pretty thick. Webster pushed Gilmer hard for the duration of the game. Only quick thinking and hard play pushed Gilmer to the top of this very talented team. THE FINAL SCORE: 28-20. Barkley was named MVP with 8 points.

In other news, Steve Ashby was made the Superintendent of State Police. Steve is a noted hard worker with his position of Circuit Clerk under his belt. Steve has also written two articles for the sports section of Gilmer's Cottage News.

"The Unrecognized Winner"

This is for he who won no election
who's now feeling left out and feeling rejection.

If you're one of the guys
who lost time and again
think of experience gained and the places you've been.

Think of the thousands who suffered the terrible fate
of not being selected to go to Boy's State.

When you win you may cheer,
if you lose you may cry
it matters not that you lost,
but that you gave it a try.

You had your chance,
they gave you a turn
but you lost, so remember
the lesson you learned.

If you tried for an office,
yet your name was not called better to have tried and lost
than to have not tried at all.

Dismiss all your feelings
of pity and hate
do your best to make the most of Mountaineer Boys' State.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO CITIZENS

DR. NEIL BUCKLEW - addressed the citizens at the noon meal today. Dr. Bucklew is the President of West Virginia University. The campus at Jackson's Mill belongs to West Virginia University. Dr. Bucklew informed the citizens that there is no better higher education system than the one in the State of West Virginia. Higher education in West Virginia really cares about the advancement of young people today. He stressed that EDUCATION IS IMPORTANT!

Dr. Bucklew is a former Boys' Stater. Some of the better students at WVU have been former Boys' Staters.

He brought Glen Carter, Director of Admissions, with him to Jackson's Mill.

He is a native West Virginian. He is married and has five children.

Thank you, Dr. Bucklew, for faithfully attending Boys' State for many years and sharing your knowledge and expertise with the Citizens here.

STATE TREASURER ADDRESSES CITIZENS

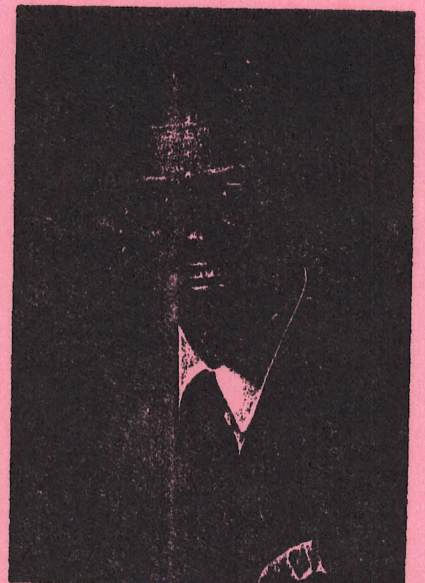

Larrie Bailey served as West Virginia State Treasurer from January 1977 to January 1985. After a six year absence from the State Treasurer's Office, Treasurer Bailey was again elected to the office by more votes than any other opposed candidate in the November, 1990 election.

He is married to the former Joyce Kennedy. They have three children; John, a graduate of Yale University and a student at the College of Law at West Virginia University; David, a student at George Washington University; and Anne, a student at West Virginia University.

Treasurer Bailey holds a BA degree from the University of South Carolina and an MA in political science from West Virginia University. He is the former president of Allegheny Financial Programs, Inc. His Broker/Dealer firm was licensed by the National Association of Security Dealers. Treasurer Bailey was formerly licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission as a Registered Investment Advisor and has taught classes in Investments at Fairmont State College. Treasurer Bailey is a former President of the National Association of State Treasurers and is now serving as Vice President of the Northeast Treasurer's Conference.

Treasurer Bailey was elected to the West Virginia House of Delegates in 1960. In 1965 he was the Democratic nominee for United States Congressman from West Virginia's First District.

Before beginning his lifelong career in public service, he served three years on active duty in the United States Navy and is now retired with the rank of Lieutenant Commander. Treasurer Bailey served as national Vice-President of the Navy of the Reserve Officers' Association of the United States (1967-1968) and earned the Armed Forces Reserve Medal and the West Virginia Meritorious Service Medal for his service with the West Virginia National Guard.

WACKY WORDIES

In 1979, GAMES readers started sending in Wacky Wordies, clever typographic word pictures that were circulating everywhere. So we made some up and ran a page of them. When readers sent more, we ran another page. And another. "No more!" we cried—to no avail. The Wacky Wordies still roll in, and despite our protests, we always print them—one more time. The object is to discern a familiar word, phrase, or proper name from each pictorial letter arrangement. Number 1, for instance, depicts the phrase "life of ease," and 2 is "rule of thumb." And please, if you think of any others, don't tell us! Answers, page 175.

A LITTLE MIXED UP

Just a line to say I'm living
That I'm not among the dead
Though I'm getting more forgetful
And I'm mixed up in the head
I've got used to my arthritis
To my dentures I'm resigned,
I can manage by bifocals
But, Oh God, I miss my mind!
For sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at the foot of the stairs
If I must go up for something
Or I just came down from there.
I open my fridge so often
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I put some food away
Or have I come to take some out?
And there are times when it is dark
With my night-cap on my head
I don't know if I'm retiring
Or just getting out of bed.
So if it's my turn to write to you
There's no need in getting sore
I may think I might have written you
But don't want to be a bore.
Just remember I do love you
And wish that you were near
But now it's nearly mail time
So must say good-bye, my dear.
There I stand beside the mail box
With a face so very red,
Instead of mailing you my letter
I have opened it instead!
Sincerely Yours.

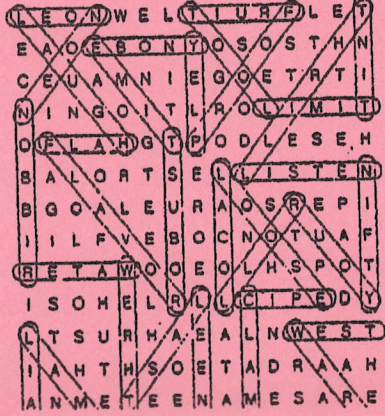

THE OLD GREY MARE IS JUST WHAT SHE USED TO BE

The Old Grey Mare is now overjoyed,
She is out of the line of the great unemployed.
The oily-tongued salesman, who sold me the tractor,
Forgot to inform that expense was a factor.
That long time credit that he gave me was bunk,
By the time it was paid for that tractor was junk.
When I stop to consider and figure my losses,
"How much I'd have saved, had I farmed with my horses!
No oil and no gas, and not many repairs,
Less worry, less debt, and fewer gray hairs.
I'll buy no more tractors, that cause so much grief,
You'll not hear me begging for more farm relief.
I'll always be free from trouble and care,
As long as I stick to the GOOD OLD GREY MARE!
