MOUNTAINEER BOYS' STATE "LIVE"

Boys' State was the topic of two live radio broadcasts on Monday, June 8, 1998.

The statewide radio broadcast on Metro News Monday morning with Hoppy Kercheval focused on how citizens are chosen to come to Boys' State and the program the citizens follow during the week.

Jim Riffle, Assistant Administrator of Boys' State answered questions about Boys' State and invited the network to consider a remote program live from Jackson's Mill next year.

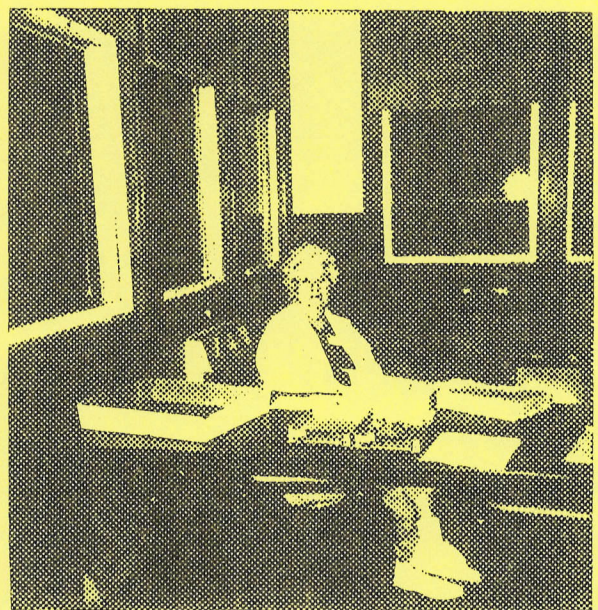

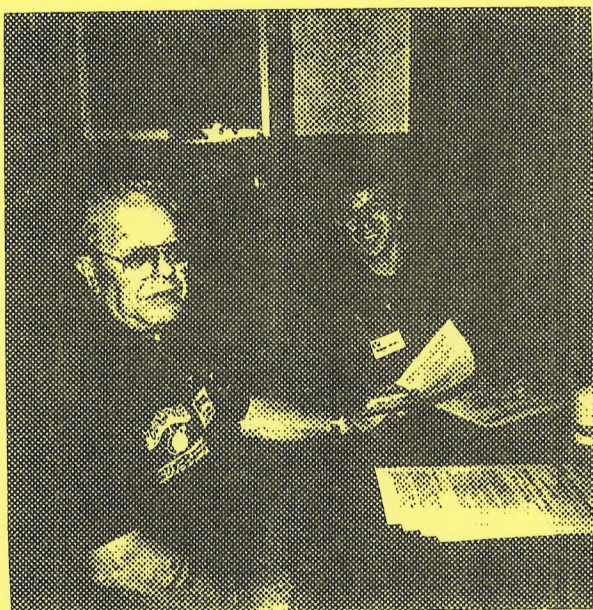

On Monday afternoon Mr. Riffle talked live with Stephen Reed on the Network Show from Charleston. Steve is a former Boys' State staff member and asked about the number of citizens enrolled this year. Also discussed were the speakers participating in this year's program.

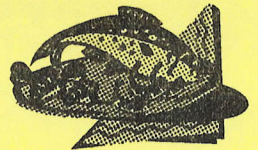

"We are very pleased to have the Metro News Network covering Boys' State. I hope many more West Virginians have a better idea about Boys' State," Riffle said.

Photographic Disaster Averted

On June 8, 1998, during the panoramic photo session, a photographic disaster was averted when Panhandle Senior Counselor, Arthur "Zock" Zoeckler, courageously and selflessly risked his life to warn the photographer of a potential hazard and assisted the photographer in the recovery of photographic items that the photographer dropped.

During this event, which was witnessed by many citizens and Boys' State staff members, including Legal Advisors, Melvin Williams and Randall Kocsis, Zoeckler allegedly inadvertently brushed a leg of the panoramic camera which necessitated the panoramic photograph being taken a second time. We should all take the opportunity to extend our thanks and congratulations to Senior Counselor Zoeckler, whose quick thinking, courageous and selfless act averted a photographic disaster. Thank you Zock!

"...Because the greatness comes not when things go always good for you, but the greatness comes, and you're really tested, when you take some knocks, some disappointments, when sadness comes. Because only if you've been in the deepest valley can you ever know how magnificent it is to be on the highest mountain.

Always give your best, never get discouraged, never be petty. Always remember, others may hate you--but those who hate you don't win unless you hate them, and then you destroy yourself. And so, we leave with high hopes, in good spirits...and with very much gratefulness in our hearts."

OH, THE DRUMS GO BANG AND THE CYMBALS CLANG - - -

This is the many sounds of the Mountaineer Boys' State band. The band, under the direction of Roger Walker, plays an important part in the Boys' State program. I'm sure you all realize this at assembly every evening.

Roger Walker is the band director for Boys' State. He has his bachelors and masters degree in music education from WVU. Roger is the former drum major of the WVU marching band. He is currently band director at Frankfort High School in Mineral County.

We appreciate the dedication and talent of this fine young man. Without the band, the program would not be as lively and festive.

Thanks Roger!

Robert "Robbie" Ferrell, Band Assistant, resides at PO Box 323, Sylvester, WV 25193 with his parents and brother, Shan. He will be a Sophomore at Sherman High School where he is member of the band. Robbie is also an active member of the Boy Scouts. He attends Whitesville First Baptist Church.

This is Robbie's first year as a Boys' State staff member.

CONGRESSMAN NICK RAHALL SPEAKS TO BOYS' STATERS

Congressman Nick Rahall spoke to the citizens of Mountaineer Boys' State at the noon meal on Monday, June 8, 1998. Congressman Rahall is a former Boys' Stater, former Boys' State staff member, and longtime visitor to Boys' State.

Mr. Rahall and his family are from Beckley, WV where they are in the radio business. He is the ranking Democratic member of the subcommittee on Surface Transportation. This is an important issue to West Virginians.

Congressman Rahall spoke about his days at Boys' State and the influence it had on him. His experience as a Boys' Stater encouraged him to go into politics and helped give him the knowledge to do so. He is going to Washington, D.C. to participate in the signing of the highway funding bill.

Thank you, Congressman Rahall!

Dr. Troy Stewart Speaks At Evening Meal

Dr. Troy Stewart, Chairman of the Political Science Department of Marshall University spoke to the citizens of Mountaineer Boys State at the evening meal on Monday. Dr. Stewart told the citizens that he firmly believes that democracy is the greatest form of government. He expressed his fear that we might lose this form of government through apathy. He explained that politics is the allocation of scarce resources and that the challenge is not to decide right from wrong because that would be easy. The true challenge is to decide between worthy options and that takes leadership. Dr. Stewart stated that there is no higher calling than to get involved in public service and he encouraged the citizens to return to their homes and to accept that challenge.

Dr. Stewart was born and raised in Metheny in Wyoming County. After serving six years in the United States Army, he received his Bachelors Degree in Social Studies from Marshall University. He then received his Masters Degree in Political Science from Marshall. He went on to West Virginia University where he earned his Doctorate in Political Science. He has taught at Marshall University since 1972, missing only two years. One year he worked for the Department of Defense and another year he spent at the College of Law at Oxford University. Dr. Stewart also represents all of higher education for the various legislative intern programs.

HECHLER SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Secretary of State Ken Hechler was the guest speaker at the assembly on Monday night. Secretary Hechler educated and entertained the citizens of Boys State with a couple of songs he has written about West Virginia. In his song "Stand Up For West Virginia", Secretary Hechler added a couple of stanzas about the mountain top removal method of coal mining. He then showed some clips from a video about mountain top removal and discussed this process with the citizens. Whether they were for or against it, he encouraged the citizens to go back to their communities and discuss the issue with their friends and family. He introduced a couple of guests who joined him on the podium.

Secretary Hechler has one of the longest and most successful political track records in West Virginia history, having served several years as Congressman and is now in his third term as Secretary of State.

Secretary Hechler is a veteran of World War II and is the author of The Bridge At Remagen, the true story of the Allie's first crossing of the Rhine River into the interior of Germany, which signaled the beginning of the end for Hitler's Nazi regime. The book was later made into a film by the same name. Hechler later served as an aid to Presidents Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman.

Mountaineer Boy's State salutes Ken Hechler as a veteran, as a leader in state government, and as a true and loyal friend of the youth of West Virginia. Montani Semper Liberi, Ken.

Mountaineer Country

Eighteenth century pioneer forts bring to life the harsh realities of the nation's push west. A covered bridge in the small town of Philippi marks the site of the first land battle of the Civil War. In towns and cities around the region, the legacy of nineteenth and twentieth century waves of European immigrants who came to mine the coal, lay the railroads, cut the timber and build vast factories remains. Their history, arts, customs and cuisines are all part of the fabric of life in Mountaineer Country.

Amid the beautiful mountains and valleys of the seven county region that composes West Virginia's Mountaineer Country, you can discover several Americas.

The latest pioneers came in the late 1960s, ready to enjoy the land itself—mountain bikers, hikers, rafters, rock climbers and nature lovers who continue to explore and enjoy the mountains, rivers, lakes and trails of this region.

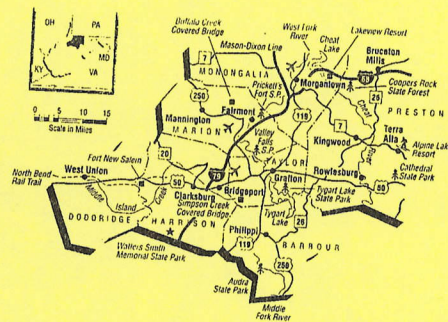

Going to Town

Urban settlement began early on, as well. The Morgan family, credited with being the first Europeans to settle Western Virginia, moved across the mountains to establish roots in what is now Morgantown. By 1785, the town was chartered and functioning as a county seat.

Today, Morgantown is best known as the home of West Virginia University. When the WVU Mountaineers play at home in the fall, the state's attention is riveted on the 70,000 seat Mountaineer Field. In the winter, the WVU Coliseum attracts basketball worshippers.

A full calendar of cultural events and activities at the Mountainlair and the Creative Arts Center serve the university community and visitors as well. The Creative Arts Center is home to West Virginia Public Theatre, producing a series of Broadway favorites and popular performances each summer. For a taste of old-time culture, visit the 19th century Cook-Hayman Pharmacy Museum on the WVU Medical Center grounds.

The University also is a destination for meetings and conventions. WVU maintains a fully staffed conference center providing full support services for meetings up to 1,400.

To view a piece of the high tech side of Morgantown, take a ride on WVU's computer-operated Personal Rapid Transit System, or PRT. A U.S. Department of Transportation research project operating since 1975, it provides daily transportation for students and residents, alike.

Most of Morgantown's downtown action resides on or near High Street. The past can be seen at the 1795 Old Stone House, a tiny structure on Chestnut Street, whose past included turns as a tavern, tannery, church and home, and now a craft and gift shop.

There are still Mediterranean arches and wrought iron balconies reminiscent of the region's 19th century ethnic ties. But, thoroughly modern tastes in music and food support a variety of pubs, bistros, interesting shops and bookstores. One of the newest attractions is the West Virginia Brewing Company, the state's only brewery pub, complete with atmosphere and one-of-a-kind brews.

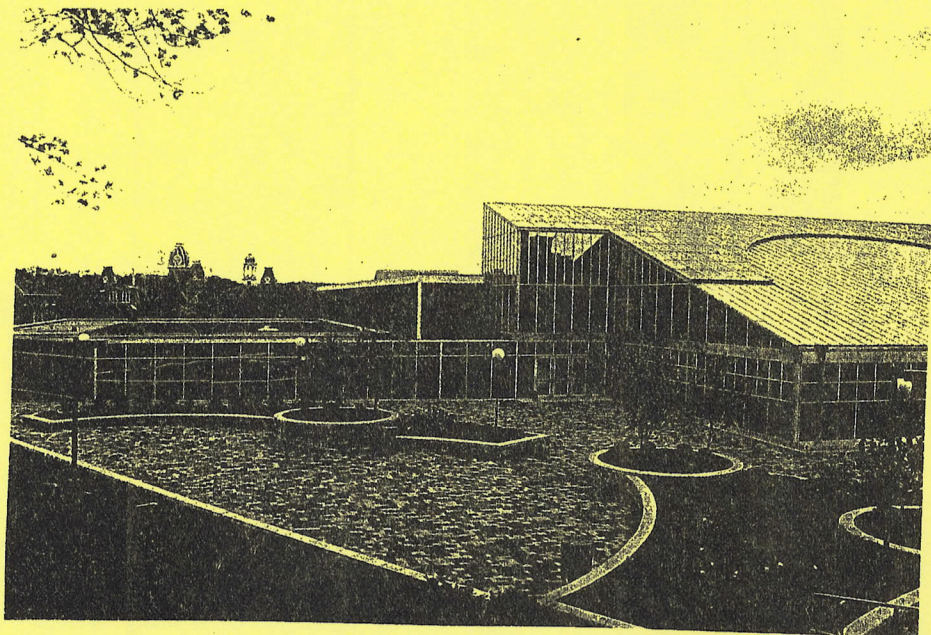

The Pioneer Spirit

Starting at the beginning in Mountaineer Country means a trip backward in time to the pioneer-era forts that recreate life in the earliest settlements in the region.

The original Prickett's Fort, just off I-79 in Fairmont in Marion County, was established in about 1754. Reconstructed according to family diaries on its actual site, this 18th century civilian fortress, which protected homesteading families from the wrath of displaced Native Americans, is now a state park.

Fort New Salem, west of Clarksburg on U.S. 50 in Harrison County, is a collection of authentic 18th and 19th century log buildings collected from around the region, several of them outfitted with their original glass and hardware fittings. Salem-Teikyo University offers Appalachian heritage arts classes at the Fort.

At Watters Smith State Park, an eighteenth century agrarian homestead in southern Harrison County, the trials and victories of early farm life are evident.

Frontier life unfolds during the outdoor drama at Prickett's Fort; on West Virginia University's campus, they're moving towards the future.

AIR-CONDITIONING

You're asking for trouble if you don't do a bit of research before buying. Too small a unit may not cool you; too big a one may not dehumidify enough.
