FAREWELL ADDRESS

CITIZENS AND DISTINGUISHED GUESTS, WELCOME TO THE 1999 INAUGURATION FOR THE GOVERNOR OF BOYS' STATE. THIS IS A SPECIAL DAY BECAUSE NOT ONLY ARE WE SWEARING IN A NEW GOVERNOR, WE'RE STARTING THE FOUNDATION FOR A BRIDGE ---A BRIDGE TO THE FUTURE.

THE 1998-99 YEAR FOR ME HAS BEEN GREAT. IT ALL STARTS HERE AT BOYS' STATE. THE PRIDE THAT COMES WITH THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR IS IMMEASURABLE. YOU WOULD NEVER KNOW HOW RELUCTANT I AM TO STEP DOWN, BUT I AM.

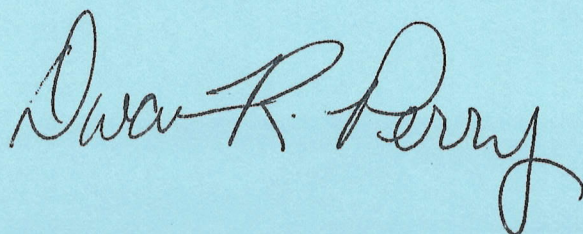

AS GOVERNOR, I'VE TRAVELED MANY ROADS, AND I KNOW THIS ROAD MUST END. LIFE HAS A ROAD SUCH AS THIS. IT'S MUCH LIKE THE BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY ROADS THAT MANY OF YOU HAVE TRAVELED, SUCH AS THE SCENIC ROUTE 19 THROUGH THE NEW RIVER GORGE OR ROUTE 52 THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS OF SOUTHERN WEST VIRGINIA.

LIKE THESE ROADS, THE ROAD OF LIFE HAS MANY FEATURES. THEY INCLUDE MOUNTAINS, HILLS, VALLEYS, PLATEAUS, CLIFFS, AND EVEN, AT SOME POINT, A LITTLE BIT OF CONSTANT FLAT ROAD.

TO HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TRAVEL THIS MAGNIFICENT ROAD TO THIS DAY AS GOVERNOR, I AM GRATEFUL. NOW I MUST EXIT THIS ROAD TO GET ONTO ANOTHER. AS I DO, I WILL REMEMBER HOW I GOT WHERE I AM. I MUST REMEMBER ALL OF THE ROADS THAT GOT ME HERE.

IT ALSO DEEPLY SADDENS ME TO GIVE UP MY OFFICE WITHOUT A FRIEND OF MINE HERE TO SEE ME DO THIS. HE'S A FRIEND THAT GOVERNOR OCHAP SHALL NEVER HAVE THE PLEASURE TO HAVE A CONVERSATION WITH. THIS FRIEND'S NAME IS JIM RIFFLE. I KNOW THAT I CAN STILL SAY THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP. I ONLY HOPE HE KNEW HOW IMPORTANT HE WAS TO ME.

AS I END MY TERM AS GOVERNOR, I WILL NOT END MY SERVICE TO BOYS' STATE. I AM SURE GOVERNOR OCHAP WILL DO VERY WELL AND TAKE BOYS' STATE INTO THE YEAR 2000.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

ADMINISTRATOR STINE, GOVERNOR PERRY, GOVERNOR UNDERWOOD, JUDGE FRED FOX II, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS, AND MY FELLOW BROTHERS OF MOUNTAINEER BOYS' STATE. WELCOME.

I WOULD FIRST LIKE TO ADDRESS THE MOST IMPORTANT ASPECT OF MY LIFE...MY FAMILY. I AM LUCKY TODAY TO HAVE MY MOTHER AND FATHER, DENISE AND GENE PRESENT. AND IF YOU GUYS WOULD HAVE KNOWN THIS, I'M SURE YOU WOULD HAVE RUN FOR GOVERNOR ALSO--A FRINGE BENEFIT OF BEING ELECTED GOVERNOR IS TO BE ABLE TO INVITE YOUR GIRLFRIEND....FAMILIES ARE SUCH A VITAL COMPONENT TO WHO YOU ARE. NEVER FORGET YOUR FAMILY, AND KNOW THEY WILL BE, AS THEY ALWAYS HAVE BEEN, THERE TO CATCH YOU WHEN YOU STUMBLE OR TO PROVIDE A SHOULDER TO CRY ON...IF YOU HAVEN'T SAID I LOVE YOU TO YOUR FAMILY IN AWHILE, DO IT TONIGHT, CALL THEM, IT IS SO IMPORTANT.

I AM VERY EXCITED AND HONORED THAT YOU HAVE CHOSEN ME AS THE 62ND GOVERNOR OF MOUNTAINEER BOYS' STATE. BELIEVE ME WHEN I SAY THAT OF ALL THE AWARDS AND RECOGNITION I HAVE RECEIVED, THIS RANKS AS ONE OF THE GREATEST AWARDS YET AND I WILL ALWAYS HOLD THIS DEAR TO ME.

I WOULD NOW LIKE TO THANK THE MANY PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED ME THROUGHOUT MY CAMPAIGN. UPSHUR COTTAGE-- THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP AND SUPPORT. THE FEDERALIST PARTY FOR NOMINATING AND BELIEVING IN ME. TO OUR ADVISORS, JIM NOLAN AND BRENT WALKER FOR THEIR HELP. RICHARD NEELY FOR HIS SPORTSMANSHIP THROUGHOUT MY CAMPAIGN AGAINST HIM AND FOR THE SUPPORT HE IS GIVING ME NOW AS MY LEGISLATIVE LIASON. TO JOHN MICHAEL VELTRI, EVAN HUBBARD, AND JOHN MALLORY - WHO FOR ORGANIZING THIS CAMPAIGN AND CONTINUING TO HELP, TO JACOB STONE FOR LEADING CHEERS, FOR PIERRE BEING A GREAT LADDER, AND FOR EVERYONE WHO HELPED, SUPPORTED, AND VOTED FOR ME. I CAN'T FULLY EXPRESS MY GRATITUDE. THANK YOU!

AS I STATED YESTERDAY, LEADERSHIP MAKES THINGS HAPPEN AND THE MOST PRECIOUS AND INTANGIBLE QUALITY OF LEADERSHIP IS TRUST. PLEASE HAVE THE CONFIDENCE THAT I WILL ACT IN YOUR BEST INTEREST. I WILL USE MY BEST JUDGMENT TO KNOW WHEN TO

ADVANCE AND WHEN TO PAUSE, WHEN TO PRAISE WHEN PRAISE IS DESERVED, AND I ENCOURAGE YOU ALL TO EXCEL THIS WEEK. HOPEFULLY, FROM OUR POOL OF OPTIMISM, AND I AM OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THIS WEEK, WE WILL ALL DRAW STRENGTH AND MAKE THIS THE BEST BOYS' STATE THAT IT CAN BE.

GOD BLESS AND THANK YOU ALL!!!!

PRESIDENT ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAKES APPEARANCE AT MBS

On Wednesday, June 9, 1999 an excellent portrayal of Abraham Lincoln was presented to the citizens at the evening assembly. The portrayal was presented by James E. Dague, and the audience was spellbound at James' presentation. James' presentation included, The Gettysburg Address and Great Moments with Mr. Lincoln. He also spoke about the importance of the West Virginia high school class of 2000.

James was assisted by Mr. Art Zoehler, senior counselor of Panhandle Cottage. Barbara Harmon-Schamberger, former Secretary of Higher Education and the Arts under Gaston Caperton. She is now serving as Deputy Commissioner, Securities Division, State Auditor's office. Barbara is a valued and treasured friend of James'.

James lives in Triadelphia with his parents, W. Edward and Patricia Naumann Dague. He graduated from Wheeling Park High School in 1988. He was a citizen of MBS in 1987 and returned for two consecutive years as a junior counselor in Panhandle Cottage where he was a citizen in 1987. He now serves on Headquarters Staff as a Legislative Advisor and greets dignitaries that attend Boys' State.

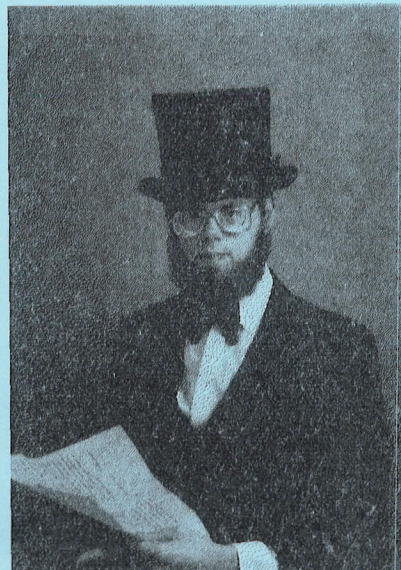

He holds an AA degree from WV Northern Community College in Liberal Arts. He graduated in December, 1995 from West Liberty State College with a B.S. degree in Interdisciplinary Studies: American Studies.

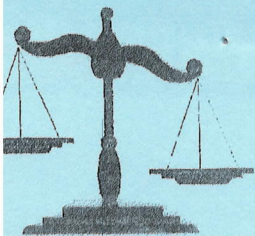

James portrays Lincoln in talent and variety shows, 4-H and other civic groups, and to schools in various areas of the state. He also presented his portrayal of Lincoln on February 12, 1992 to the West Virginia State Senate in Charleston. He was accompanied by the 1991 Boys' State Senate. James served as a volunteer staff member, West Virginia House of Delegates, Committee on Education during the 1997, 1998, & 1999 Regular Session, working along with Delegate Jerry L. Mezzatesta.

His comments about Boys' State: "I consider Boys' State to be one of the best programs I have had the opportunity to participate in because it permits the citizens to elect their peers to public office and to meet their elected officials." James was born with cerebral palsy. He said that this limits him somewhat; however, he can set a goal and eventually achieve it. We all need to learn a lesson from James. He has demonstrated his ability to rise above his disability throughout his life. In high school, he was a member of the National Honor Society and served as Parliamentarian for Student Council. He is a member and Trustee at Roney's Point Presbyterian Church, Triadelphia, West Virginia.

James has one younger brother, Jerry, is an EMT and a graduate of Fairmont State College. He is now a Medical School student at Marshall University. Jerry and his wife Kelli are the proud parents of a daughter, Ashley L. Dague, born December 16, 1998.

We wish James well and look forward to his returning to Boys' State each year to help with the program. He has been a real asset to us here at Jackson's Mill.

FLAG ETIQUETTE

Proper care and presentation of the flag are as important as what the flag means to American citizens.

However, some citizens and businesses display the flag in an incorrect fashion.

The tattered flag located at the newly renovated Tax Revenue Center at 1001 Lee

St. E. is an example, according to the Federal Flag Code, a code that outlines proper etiquette for display of the flag.

Jim Paige, secretary of tax and revenue, said a new flag has been ordered for the building.

"This flag has been up since 1986. Within the next week, a new one will be put up," he said.

Here are some dos and don'ts on flag care and etiquette that are listed in the Federal Flag Code:

■ The flag should be displayed from sunrise to sunset. If displayed after sunset, a light must shine on it. The flag should be raised briskly and lowered slowly, and an all-weather flag is necessary in bad weather.

■ The flag should be flown on designated days of historic meaning, such as the Fourth of July. However, it may be flown every day of the year. It also needs to be flown at all public buildings, where people vote on Election Day and when school is in session.

■ A badly soiled, faded or torn flag should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning. This type of burning is not desecration of the flag.

■ Flags should never be flown upside down unless of "a dire emergency" and it should never touch the ground.

■ The flag should never be carried flat or have items carried on it. It should always be free floating and aloft. It also should never be used as clothing or a uniform.

■ Groups may wear flag patches on a uniform, if they are worn in accordance with the flag code. A button or pin depicting the American flag may be worn as a demonstration of patriotism.

■ Storage of the flag should be in a place where it cannot be soiled or damaged. The flag should not be drawn or marked on, used as drapery or drawn back in folds.

■ The flag should not be used as a ceiling or table cloth or used for advertising purposes.

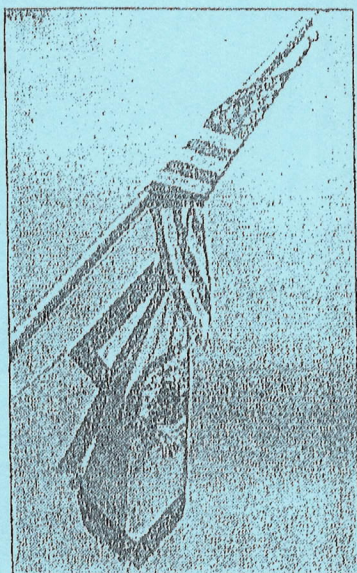

■ Raising the flag to half-staff on Veterans or Armistice Day is incorrect. This day is set aside to honor veterans, not mourn them.

■ When flying on a single flagstaff, along with another flag, the American flag must fly at the top. This assures it will be raised first and lowered last. On special days, it may be flown at half-staff. On Memorial Day, it should be flown at half-staff until noon, then raised to the top of the flag pole.

■ Hanging vertically, the union (blue area with 50 stars) should be in the upper left corner. Against a wall, it should be at the top to the flag's own right.

■ If the flag is mounted on a staff, the American flag should be to the right of the speaker and to the left of those looking at it. When displayed at the speaker's platform, it must be above and behind the speaker.

CHIP ELLIS/DAILY MAIL

TATTERED: Jim Paige, secretary of tax and revenue, says a new flag has been ordered to replace the worn U.S. flag on the Tax Revenue Center on Lee Street.

REMEMBER ME?

Hello! Remember Me?

Some call me Old Glory, others call me the Star Spangled Banner, but whatever they call me, I am your Flag - the Flag of the United States of America... There has been something that has been bothering me, so, I thought that I might talk it over with you here today.

I remember some time ago, (I think it was Memorial Day, or was it Veterans' Day?) that people were lined up on both sides of the street for a parade. A high school band was behind me and, naturally, I was leading the parade. When your Daddy saw me coming along waving in the breeze, he immediately removed his hat and placed it so that his right hand was directly over his heart.

And you - I remember you.

Standing there as straight as a soldier, you didn't have any hat, but you were giving me the right salute. Remember, they taught you in school to place your right hand over your heart, and little sister, not to be outdone, was saluting the same as you. There were some soldiers home on leave and they were standing at attention giving the military salute. Oh, I was very proud as I came down your street that day.

Now, I may sound as if I am a little conceited, Well I am! I have a right to be, because I represent you, the people of the United States of America.

But what happened? I am still the same old flag. Oh, I have a couple more stars added since you were a boy. A lot more stars added since the beginning of this country, and lot more blood shed since that patriotic day so long ago.

Now I don't feel as proud as I used to.

When I come down your street, some people just stand there with their hands in their pockets and give me a small glance and then look away. I see children running around and shouting. They don't seem to know who I am.

Is it a sin to be patriotic anymore? Have some people forgotten what I stand for? Have they forgotten all the battlefields where men have fought and died to keep this nation free? When you salute me you are actually saluting them!

Take a look at the memorial rolls some time. Look at the names of those who never came back. Some of them were friends and relatives of yours.

That's whom you are saluting, not me!

Well, it won't be long until I'll be coming down your street again. So, when you see me, stand straight, place your hand over your heart and you'll see me waving back-- that's my salute to you.

And then I will know you remember who I am...

Music and Culture

Live music is a staple of Charleston's cultural scene. The West Virginia Symphony has monthly concerts featuring internationally known guest artists, and West Virginia Public Radio's live national broadcast of Mountain Stage from the Cultural Center on Sundays brings musicians from around the world to Charleston.

Sunrise Museum, with its Science & Technology Center and Torquilstone Art Museum, provides a door to the world of science and art. Programs and exhibits for youngsters make the museums a family treat.

Spectator Sports

For spectator sports, head to Watt Powell Baseball Park and catch the play of the Charleston Alleycats, the Class A farm team of the Cincinnati Reds. For comfort and sport, go to the dogs at Tri-State Greyhound Park in Cross Lanes, off I-64. Video slots are a popular addition at the park.

Midwestern View

Sixty miles west of Charleston on I-64, Huntington is a town of wide midwestern-style avenues, landscaped parks and a flourishing cultural scene supported by the renowned Huntington Museum of Art and Marshall University.

Huntington Museum presents traveling exhibits of classic and contemporary paintings, prints and sculpture, as well as cultivating its own permanent collections. Because of its location in this historic glass producing region, one of its important collections is of Ohio River Valley glassware.

The Museum of Radio and Technology is one person's passion, collected in the Harvey Town Elementary and open to the public on weekends or by appointment. The Railroad Historical Museum near Huntington's Old Central City is a nice complement to the antique and curio stores of the West 14th Street district.

Marshall University provides a cultural boost with its Marshall Artists Series and arts center.

The gleaming gold of the State Capitol, in Charleston, is a beacon for travelers to the Metro Valley.

The region takes its name from the populated zone stretching along some 60 miles of I-64 from the capital city to the railroad and shipping port of Huntington.

You'll find urban comforts here — theaters, museums, universities, restaurants, lodging, shopping and air service. In both towns, broad and beautiful rivers define the landscape and enhance recreation opportunities.

City pleasures there are, but much of this large region is serenely rural, and the natural world is never more than minutes away. Coal, railroad, farm, Native American and African-American history. Sports and recreation of every variety, from baseball games to balloon rides. Heirloom quilts. Fragile wetlands. World-renowned glass. And, in every niche of the Metro Valley, hospitable people who are proud to share their rich region.

Park It

Harris Riverfront Park is the scene of public entertainment all year long, ranging from pops concerts in summer to a Summerfest celebration in the city and on the Ohio River. It's also a wonderful place for a stroll or a run, as is Ritter Park, another Huntington favorite, complete with renowned rose garden and children's park.

For more of the river, take the Jewel City Sternwheeler, which docks at Harris Riverfront Park between hour-long narrated cruises on the Ohio.

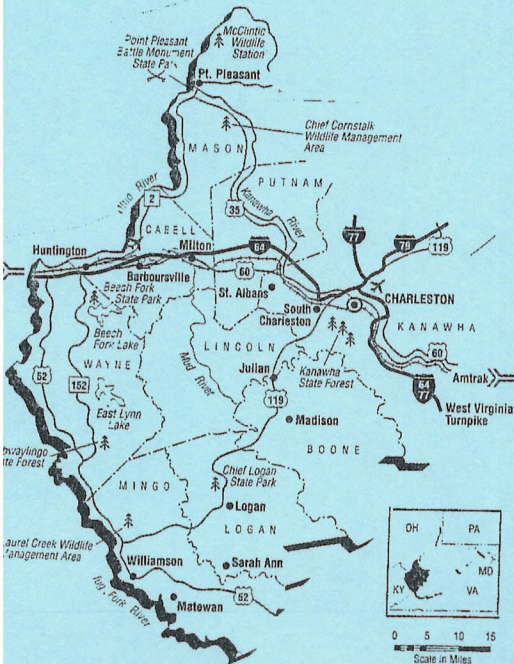

Camden Park, a turn-of-the-century amusement park, is a West Huntington institution featuring a wooden roller coaster, an antique carousel and rides for everyone.

In the fall, Marshall University's Thundering Herd offers lots of action in the division conference's newest and finest football facility. For winter sports fans, there's the Huntington Blizzard hockey team on the ice at the Huntington Civic Arena.

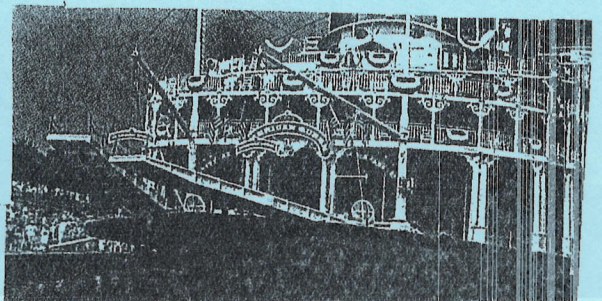

Coal Country

The southernmost part of the Metro Valley is "Coal Country," a far less populated area than the rest of the region. It is home to the legendary Hatfield and McCoy families and the town of Matewan, site of the Matewan Massacre during the West Virginia Mine Wars early this century. Explorers can reach the area from Charleston via US 119 and a series of winding secondary roads.

The rural region holds rewards for real Americana enthusiasts. An Italian marble statue of patriarch "Devil" Anse Hatfield, of Hatfield and McCoy fame, still stands guard in the family cemetery at Sarah Ann in Logan County. The Coal House in Williamson, constructed in 1933 of 65 tons of local bituminous coal, gleams in ebony grandeur.

Eastern Panhandle

here's captivating history with Colonial and Civil War roots; terrific shopping for antiques, crafts and contemporary housewares and clothing; dozens of lodging choices at resorts, spas, bed and breakfasts and motels; relax-

Just a stone's throw from the city, discover a quieter place where small, picturesque towns share the landscape with scenic rolling hills and farmlands. ation and adventure on the rivers, roads and golf courses; theater, cinema and fine dining, all within the three county region known as West Virginia's Eastern Panhandle.

Bounded by the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers and about an hour from Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, the Eastern Panhandle, Jefferson, Berkeley and Morgan counties, is a natural escape from the Eastern metropolitan pressure-cooker.

Charles Town— Washington Family Roots

Charles Town, founded in 1786 and named for Charles Washington, George's brother, exudes 19th century charm and history. There are historic bed and breakfasts within walking distance of the town's attractions and fine dining at places such as the Washington House Inn. Other entertainment includes community theater, which thrives in the Old Opera House.

The white columned Jefferson County Courthouse became a national landmark when John Brown was tried in Charles Town in 1859. The Jefferson County Museum displays artifacts from the era, including the wagon that carried Brown to trial and the prosecutor's table.

Each April, owners and proprietors of historic properties throughout Berkeley and Jefferson counties open their doors for the annual House and Garden Tour that takes you to the historic villages of Colonial Middleway and Gerrardstown as well as Martinsburg, Charles Town, Shepherdstown and Harpers Ferry. You may get an opportunity to see the Washington family farmhouse outside of Charles Town where Dolly Payne married James Madison, second President of the United States.

Harpers Ferry's Civil War Roots

The town of Harpers Ferry is perhaps livelier today than it was in 1859, when abolitionist John Brown staged his raid on the U.S. Arsenal there, setting off a chain of events that resulted in the Civil War. It's undoubtedly more beautiful than ever before in its long history, as its historic section is polished and maintained as a national historical park.

The park is actually a collection of many small museums created within the original buildings. It offers a schedule of events all year long, with costumed interpreters providing daily tours throughout summer and on Saturdays and Sundays in fall, winter and spring.

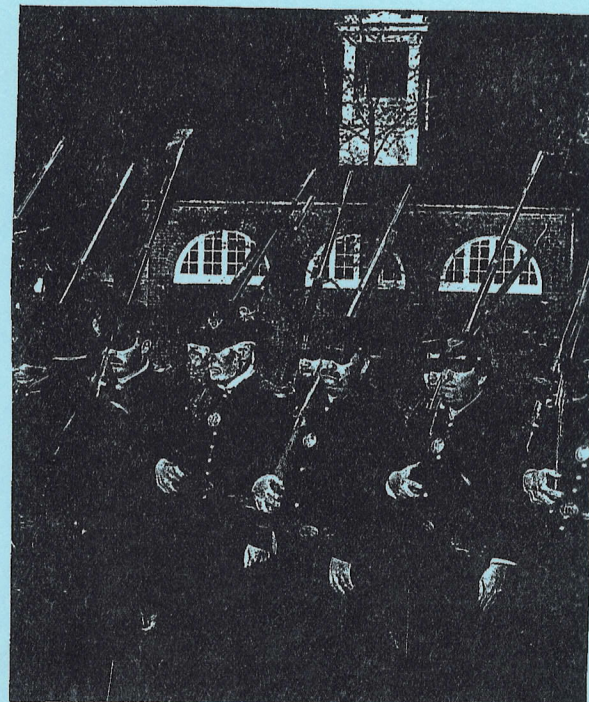

Along the cobblestone streets winding uphill from the park to the town of Bolivar, shops feature a remarkable collection of antiques including Civil War memorabilia and local crafts. Shopping opportunities increase by some 200 juried booths during the popular June and September editions of the Mountain where specialty shops, charming restaurants, small inns and the cultural programs of Shepherd College fill the town with visitors.

The Bavarian Inn and Lodge, overlooking the cliffs of the Potomac River, offers elegant rooms, as well as a swimming pool, lighted tennis courts, brand new conference facilities and award-winning German cuisine. The eclectic 1930s Yellow Brick Bank, The Olde Pharmacy Cafe, complete with original pharmaceutical trappings, and Ye Olde Sweet Shoppe offer historic settings and good food.

Art film buffs flock to the Old Opera House of Shepherdstown, recently refurbished as a cinema. Each July, Shepherd College's Contemporary American Theater Festival stages new works by both well known and novice playwrights and late night improvisational cabaret.

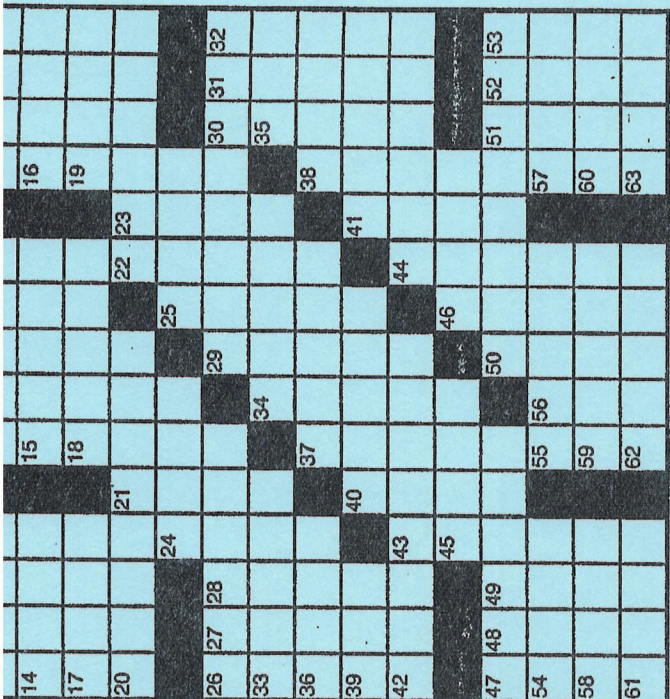

For a touch of history, visit Rumsey's Monument, along the banks of the Potomac. The site honors the town's most famous native, James Rumsey, who launched an early steamboat from this very spot.
