US Flag Code

Adopted June 14, 1923

On June 14, 1923, Representatives from over 68 organizations, led by the American Legion’s Americanism Commission, met to draft an authentic code of flag etiquette. The code drafted by this conference was given nationwide distribution. This was done so that we all do things the same way when it comes to the Flag of the United States of America.

The Flag of the United States is considered to be a living symbol representing our country. Your flag represents the many freedoms, rights, and responsibilities entrusted to the citizens of this country. The proper display and use of the flag is the responsibility of every citizen. The code is simply a guideline for proper display of, and honor to, our flag. There are no penalties for violation of the provisions of the code.

Should there be?

Flag Presentation Ceremony

Defined by The American Legion

To make sure that Old Glory flies free and aloft you conduct a Flag presentation ceremony. This ceremony is a happy ceremony because truth, Justice, and our way of life have been preserved. Flag presentation ceremonies are utilized by veteran’s organizations to give thanks and appreciation for support of the American ideals to another entity, individual, or organization.

YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG

Your flag and my flag,
 And how it flies today
 In your land and my land,
 And half a world away!
 Rose-red and blood-red,
 The stripes forever gleam;
 Snow-white and soul-white,
 The good forefathers’ dream;
 Sky-blue and true-blue,
 with stars to gleam aright
 The gloried Gideon of the day;
 a shelter through the night

American Legion Mountaineer Boys State Flag

Although provided for and described in the Constitution, ratified in 1937 by the Citizens of the American Legion Mountaineer Boys State, the actual purchase of the official flag was not made until National American Legion Headquarters approved the design in March of 1957.

The flag has the profile of Stonewall Jackson surrounded by the 14 counties of The American Legion Mountaineer Boys State represented by stars (9 gold for the original counties and 5 navy for the additional counties) upon a white background. The lettering includes the American Legion, Department of West Virginia, Mountaineer Boys State and its motto: “Build for Citizenship”.

The flag was reproduced in 2012, for the 75th American Legion Mountaineer Boys State.

THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS

Sponsorships are solicited year-round for the program.

Who foots the bill for Boys State? Who pays for the week of citizenship and fellowship enjoyed at West Virginia University Jackson's Mill? Who pays for the transportation, insurance, and administrative costs?" The American Legion Family, Civic clubs, lodges, school booster clubs, and service organizations, as well as business firms, sponsor students to attend The American Legion Mountaineer Boys State. The American Legion Department of West Virginia pays for the administrative cost of the program.

Citizens of American Legion Mountaineer Boys State are selected by their high school staff and/or local American Legion Post.

Please be sure to write and thank your sponsor for enabling you to attend The American Legion Mountaineer Boys State by supplementing the cost of the program. If you don't know who that is, see Marie Burliegh in headquarters. The American Legion Mountaineer Boys State stationary and envelopes are available in Dorsey Center. There is also a box for outgoing mail in the Dorsey Center.

The American Legion Posts and ALMBS staff work throughout the year to recruit sponsorships to ensure a full program. It is request that when you return to your hometown and school you help spread the word to continue increasing enrollment. The best gift you can provide to the program is the gift of referring your friends and classmates to attend in the future.

Our goal is to have every high school and county in the State of West Virginia represented each year. Your help will make this possible.

Attorney General Patrick Moorisey Addresses ALMBS

Patrick Moorisey was elected as the Attorney General for the State of West Virginia on November 6, 2012 and was sworn into office on January 14, 2013.

Patrick Moorisey is the first Republican to serve as Attorney General in West Virginia since 1933, and as a resident of Harpers Ferry, Moorisey is also the first Attorney General from Jefferson County in our state's history.

Since becoming Attorney General, Moorisey has made fighting fraud, waste, abuse, and corruption a top priority of the Office. Shortly after taking office, he instituted a new policy for hiring outside counsel that has dramatically increased transparency and saved the state more than $4 million.

In 2014, Attorney General Moorisey called on the West Virginia Legislature to do thorough audits and performance reviews of all state agencies to help detect any abuse of taxpayer dollars. Moorisey has been a staunch advocate of fundamental reforms to reshape our state's economic climate and help West Virginia reach its potential.

In practice since 1992, Moorisey worked on many high-profile health care matters in private practice prior to serving as Attorney General, and possesses a broad array of experience on regulatory issues, Medicare, Medicaid, policy, fraud and abuse investigations, legislative matters, strategic counseling, and legal and policy challenges to federal statutes and regulations.

Between 1999 to 2004, Moorisey served as the Deputy Staff Director and Chief Health Care Counsel to the House of Representatives Energy and Commerce Committee, helping draft and negotiate major legislation, including the Medicare Modernization Act of 2003 and the Bioterrorism and Public Health Preparedness Act of 2002.

Moorisey graduated with honors from Rutgers College in 1989 earning Bachelor of Arts degrees in history and political science. He received a juris doctor from Rutgers Law School-Newark in 1992.

Elwood Gordon Gee (born

February 2, 1944) is an American academic and is currently serving his second term as President of West Virginia University. He has served as the chief executive at several universities in the United States. He went on to lead the University of Colorado (1985-1990), Brown University (1998-2000) and Vanderbilt University (2001-2007). He served as president of The Ohio State University from 1990 to 1997 and again from 2007 to 2013. Gee had been heading an Ohio State-based think tank following his retirement from Ohio State presidency on July 1, 2013. Gee has been the president of more universities than anyone in the U.S.

Gee was born and grew up in Vernal, Utah, 171 miles (275 km) east of Salt Lake City, the son of an oil company employee and a school teacher. Raised a Mormon, he served a mission in Germany and Italy. Gee is an Eagle Scout and a recipient of the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award. Gee attended the University of Utah and graduated with a B.A. in history in 1968. After earning a J.D. from Columbia University Law School in 1971 and an Ed.D. from Teachers College, Columbia University in 1972, Gee was named a judicial fellow and staff assistant to the Supreme Court for one year.

In 2014, Gee returned to West Virginia University, where his career as a university president began. He became dean of the West Virginia University College of Law, and, in 1980, was named West Virginia University president. He served in that role until 1985.

Born in Vernal, Utah, Gee graduated from the University of Utah with an honors degree in history and earned his J.D. and Ed.D. degrees from Columbia University.

Some people have a weakness for artwork that would fill up a gallery. Others can't get enough designer bags, shoes or sports memorabilia. For E. Gordon Gee, it's bow ties. The 75-year-old president of West Virginia University has amassed more than 2,000 of them over the years: plaid, striped, wooden, metallic, another with tiny pink piglets — even one that was shot into space.
