Welcome to the 2024 American Legion Mountaineer Boys State!

I want to personally commend you for being selected to participate in West Virginia's leading educational program for leadership.

Among the fierce competition with numerous talented candidates, you have earned your place in the 85th Annual Mountaineer Boys State. Being selected for this program is indeed a notable achievement. Your dedication, exemplary character, and noteworthy accomplishments have brought you to this point. You should take pride in your hard work.

It is with great pleasure that the American Legion and I extend a warm welcome to you for this esteemed program. Throughout this event, your commitment, involvement, and contributions to public life and your community will be recognized and appreciated. As you participate in this program, remember to reflect on the lessons you learn here and integrate them into your life and future endeavors. What you learn here will stay with you forever.

With a rich history spanning decades, this program has shaped and nurtured West Virginia's young men to become distinguished leaders in public service. You are following in the footsteps of esteemed alumni who have gone before you. It is important to honor their legacy while also forging your own path and challenging established norms. Innovation is crucial for effective public service.

I look forward to seeing how you shape the future of West Virginia. The future is looking bright for all of you!

Sincerely,

Alex X. Mooney
